

Steinway & Sons D-274

Complete Renovated – Serial No. 60344

Steinway's flagship, D-274, is the legend and gold standard of all Grand Pianos, and has been synonymous with outstanding craftsmanship and uncompromising quality, aesthetics and expression since 1853, explains why almost all concert pianists worldwide choose Steinway, and why Steinway is the musical centerpiece of the many cultured homes around the world.

Steinway D-274 accounts for 98% of the world's concert venues.

This instrument, with serial number 60344, is built in New York in 1887. Absolutely the entire grand piano, with all parts, has been completely replaced or completely restored, all by Steinway's standard. New genuine Steinway mechanics, supplied by Steinway & Sons in Hamburg, have been introduced, and the instrument appears completely new, with a modern look. It is regulated and awarded Concert Voicing and Final Tuning by a skilled Steinway specialist.

New price on a D-274 is over NOK 1.8 million. Contact the seller for price on this instrument. The purchase price includes transportation, regulation and tuning at a new destination, as well as a 5 year warranty.

NB: All pictures are of the grand piano to be sold

Restored by Steinway standard

The instrument has been restored to Steinway's specifications

Grand piano exterior

- Painted in high gloss black Polyester
- New Legs
- New Dashboard
- New modern Lyre
- New Lid Hinges
- New modern Leg Fittings

Sounding parts

- New Sound Board
- New Strings
- New Pin Block

Action and keyboard

- Mounting and adjustment of new genuine Steinway Action
- Mounting and adjustment of new genuine Steinway Keyboard
- New Steinway Hammers with Heads, Shanks , Hammer Rolls and Capsules
- New Damper Lifter Felt

Steinway - An investment that pay off

A Steinway is a masterpiece of craftsmanship. The best time to invest in a Steinway Grand Piano is always the same: Today. That's because when factory prices of new Steinway pianos increase, the value of existing Steinway pianos increase.

A 10-yesr-old Steinway in good conditions usually sells for about 75 % of the current retail price, which goes up about 4 % each year.

A 50-year-old Steinway commands a price more than nine times it's original cost.

